

LOADING AND UNLOADING PUPILS

In order to provide safe conditions for the loading and unloading of pupils riding school buses, the following shall be observed:

Whenever a school bus stops to discharge or load students who must cross the street or highway upon which the bus is stopped, at a point where traffic is not controlled by a traffic officer or official traffic signal, the flashing red light signal system shall be operated and the bus drivers shall escort the pupils across the roadway.

Reference: California Administrative Code, Title 13, Chapter 2, Sub-Chapter 6.5, Sections 1226, 1227; California Vehicle Code Section 22112

Policy adopted: June 26, 1980