

COUNSELOR

The Board of Trustees hereby establishes a class of positions called counselor. The general title may be modified by the Superintendent to indicate the specific function to be served.

The counselor's primary role is to provide guidance services for pupils.

The Superintendent will be responsible for development and maintenance of job description(s).