

PSYCHOLOGIST

The Board of Trustees hereby establishes a class of positions called psychologist. The psychologist is to aid the learning process, using specialized training and experience in education and behavioral sciences.

The Superintendent will be responsible for development and maintenance of job description(s).