

UNSATISFACTORY PUPIL ACCOMPLISHMENT

Each pupil is expected to achieve according to his ability. Any pupil who refuses to put forth necessary effort detracts from the opportunities of the others and needlessly uses teacher time. It is expected that such students, following a period of review and study, shall be disciplined in a manner satisfactory to the school staff.

Reference: Education Code Section 48921

Policy adopted: February 19, 1968; November 6, 1978