Classrooms

The flag of the United States shall be displayed in every District classroom at all times during school session, including summer session.

Flags mounted in each classroom do not require lowering to half-staff upon the death of principal figures of the United States government and the Governor of a state, as a mark of respect to their memory; or for other reasons proclaimed by the President or Governor.

It is the responsibility of the classroom teacher to inform school administration if the classroom-mounted flag becomes damaged, missing, or for any reason requires replacement. It is the responsibility of the school administration to secure a replacement flag for the classroom when required.
