

TOURNAMENT PARTICIPATION BY SPEECH STUDENTSStudent Participation

Participation in speech programs is entirely voluntary. Tournament attendance is not required, there are no mandatory practice sessions, and teachers are to impose restrictions on individual students who might be over-extending themselves.

Opportunities for tournament Participation

A. Notice

The Orange County Speech League offers ample and varied experiences to the beginning student. However, if league tournaments are cancelled, a replacement non-league meet may be scheduled.

B. Varsity

Speakers may participate in the Orange County Speech League events and other invitational tournaments selected by the Forensics Coach with the approval of the campus administrator. Normally varsity speakers will participate in eight tournament events.

NOTE: Speech tournaments are competitive events, and students and faculty will observe all applicable sections of Administrative Regulations 6560 and 6560.2.

Regulation approved: January 26, 1971; February 22, 1977; November 7, 1978;
