

ALTERNATIVE MODES OF INSTRUCTION

Schools are authorized to provide one or more of the following programs for students when it has been determined that the student's individual needs can best be met by participation in an alternative program.

Alternative School (Education Code Sections 58500-58514)

Individualized Contracted Study

Community Activity or Project

Student or Laboratory Assistant

Regional Occupational Program

Private Instruction (Title 5, Sections 1631 and 1632)

Independent Study Program (Title 5, Sections 11700-11703)

College or University Courses (Title 5, Section 1630)

Correspondence Instruction (Title 5, Section 1633)

Opportunity Program

Online Courses

Although the mode of instruction may vary from that of the regular classroom, the student must meet all graduation requirements in order to be eligible for a diploma and must meet the minimum daily attendance requirements.