

PRESIDENT

The President of the Board of Trustees shall preside at all meetings of the Board and shall decide upon the order in which agenda items shall be taken up. The President shall have the same rights as the other members of the Board in voting, introducing motions and resolutions and discussing pending matters.

In the absence of the President, the Clerk of the Board shall preside over all meetings of the Board. The remaining members present shall select one of their members to act as Clerk Pro Tem.

If the President and the Clerk of the Board are both absent, the remaining members present shall select one of their group to act as temporary President and then the temporary President shall select a temporary Clerk of the Board.
