

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees is the unit of authority. Apart from the normal function as a part of the Board, the individual member has no authority. Individually, a member may not commit the District to any policy, act or expenditure. A member cannot do business with the District nor have an interest in any contract with the District in general. Individual members do not represent any factional segment of the community, but are a part of the Board which represents and acts for the community as a whole.
